A Timeless Kitchen Essential

Prasada Organic GMO-Free Extra Virgin Olive Oil just might be your perfect pantry partner. However you use it — at room temperature for dressings and drizzles, or over heat to sear, sauté, or stir-fry — this mild-flavored, deep green olive oil performs flawlessly. And it's craft bottled in Portland, Oregon, where foodies are as plentiful as trees.

A Cholesterol-Free Butter Substitute

Created from the meat of raw, organic coconuts, Prasada Organic Coconut Butter is a luscious, low-sodium, cholesterol-free alternative to dairy butter. Its mild coconut flavor and rich, creamy texture make it an easy swap with your normal butter choice; try it melted into a cookie recipe, blended into a smoothie, or spread on a slice of your favorite bread. Its 350° high smoke point makes coconut oil ideal for quick sautéing or roasting.

The Ultimate Indulgence

From the moment you pop one in your mouth, Prasada Dried Chocolate Covered Mango slices achieve the perfect mix of sweet, tart, and creamy... all at once. Plump fruit slabs are drizzled with rich dark chocolate, transforming them into a complex, indulgent snack — a perfect complement of flavor and texture. Try combining them with Prasada Dried Chili Mangoes. (Whoa.)

A Gluten-Free, Grain-Free Tortilla Chip

Tortilla chips are a long-standing snacking tradition. But if you're watching your carbs, vegan, or kosher, your options are limited. Until now: Prasada's new Cocotillas® tortilla chips are made from organic coconut flour, so they're lower in carbs and sodium and higher in iron than their traditional counterparts — and they're gluten-free! Crisp, light, and made with six or fewer ingredients, they're the manifestation of what tortilla chips always dreamed they could be. So go ahead. Indulge. Whether you favor our Sea Salt or new Sea Salt with Lime flavor, Prasada's Cocotillas® are sure to scratch your snacking itch.
