

Foresight is a skill. Learn it from the experts.

In a rapidly changing world, your organization's ability to see the future—and take action—could mean the difference between its life and death. The IFTF Foresight Training was created by Institute for the Future to provide essential tools and techniques for embracing strategic foresight, navigating large-scale change, and leading your organization towards a vibrant future.

In the IFTF Foresight Training, you'll learn to:

Identify and analyze signals of change

See beyond current constraints
to identify new possibilities

Leverage hindsight to discover patterns of innovation and disruption

Design futures projects that lead to actionable insights

Build foresight capacity for your organization

How do you create a sustainable future?

The IFTF Foresight Training is a one-of-a-kind course designed to help individuals and organizations develop their skills in the art and science of foresight. As a participant, you'll learn to filter information to determine its usefulness; transform urgent foresight into actionable insights; disrupt short-termism; and develop and test your own experiments in future-making. Upon completion, you'll receive a certification as a foresight practitioner, joining a community of like-minded visionaries dedicated to the adoption of strategic foresight practices.

“ The Foresight Training equipped me with tools and resources I needed to help my team engage with clients and partners to advance our work in an evocative and practical way. IFTF staff was exemplary throughout, and connecting with thought leaders in other organizations was of tremendous significance. It was one of the best three-day professional investments I've had in a long time.

—Senior Manager, Learning Innovation, Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation

The IFTF Foresight Training is ideal for individuals, managers, consultants, and teams ready to lead or expand their organizations' capacity for foresight.

The course includes:

- › Three days of in-person training conducted by IFTF researchers
- › Immersion in futures-thinking skills, methodologies, and processes
- › Proprietary IFTF toolkit with 22 specialized tools and accessories
- › Powerful takeaways including PowerPoint deck and graphic memory of training session
- › Personalized, strategic Foresight-Insight-Action plan for post-training application
- › Breaks for meals, downtime, and networking with a cohort of diverse forward-thinkers
- › Official certification as an IFTF-trained foresight practitioner

“ The Practitioner Training was an inspiring, instructive, practice-oriented gathering of IFTF foresight specialists and forward-thinking attendees from diverse sectors. The variety of people, the well-prepared lectures and insightful discussions, and the group works made it indispensable for anybody who wants to shape the future.
